As was reported, it was then that Consul General Uyeno made the demand that he be permitted to be the judge of the seaworthiness of the Russian ship. The reply that Collector Stratton made to this demand was in effect that the United States was able to cope with the situation without the assistance of either belligerent.

In the afternoon Captain Berlinsky of the Lena, accompanied by the Russian consul, Paul Kosakevitch, called on Collector Stratton. Captain Berlinsky assured the collector that he would be most happy to acquiesce in any demand relative to any investigation of the condition of his ship the collector thought necessary.

Report Comes That Linevitch, With 50,000 Men, Has Invaded Northwestern Korea and Cut off Kuroki's Communications-Rumors Are Current That Alexieff Has Resigned, That Linevitch Succeeds Kuropatkin.

The sanguinary side of the Russo-Japanese conflict is not now in evidence, and, with practical suspension of news from the front, interest for the time being is centered in the rumors that Alexieff has resigned, that Kuropatkin is to be replaced by General Linevitch, now in command of the forces at Vladivostok, and other statements which can not be traced to authentic sources, but all of which, if true, would have most important bearing on the situation.

One Russian correspondent points out that when the Japanese withdrew from the Russian front it is usually a precursor of their appearance on the flanks, and he thinks the indications point to a winter campaign.

Interest again turns to Port Arthur and to the effect which the Russian defeat at Liao Yang is likely to have on the garrison there, and fear is expressed that the siege will soon end in disaster for the

STATEMENT OF PACK IS GIVEN OUT

Official Figures Show That Output of Columbia River Canneries Is Little More Than 300,000.

Statement is Based on Four Dozen One-pound Cans to Each Case of Salmon.

EARLY REPORT MISLEADING

Did Not Have Consideration for Half-pound Cases, but Included Them Indiscriminately.

The spring salmon pack of the Columbia river, based on four dozen onepound cans to the case, is just a little more than 300,000 cases. Official figurges were made public yesterday. Statements heretofore appearing have been misleading for the reason that they made no distinction between half-pound cases and pound cases. The haps reaches 375,000, but the trade recognizes the pack of pound cases. The statement herewith presented is compiled from exact figures furnished by most of the packers. In a few instances it was necessary to approximate the output, but statements were secured from Chinese bosses and other sources. The actual pack is perhaps not 1000 cases greater or smaller than the estimate which follows:
